

FRIDAY NIGHT SCHMOOZE AND OTHER EVENTS SCHEDULE 2011

All events begin at 8:30pm in Norman Thomas Social Hall unless otherwise indicated. Refreshments will be served.

July 1 at 8:00pm

Film — “Un Secret.” Presented by Carol Marsh.

July 8

What's in Store for American Journalism. A panel discussion led by new member Mitch Stephens (Prof. of Journalism, NYU), including Three Arrows journalists Bruce Dancis and Sascha Brodsky.

July 15

Three Arrows Governance. A panel discussion by 4 present/past TA presidents (Leni Glauber, Cate Crowley, Halona Balgley, Alice Appenzeller), with audience participation. Questions to be raised and issues to be discussed will be circulated to the membership in advance.

July 22

The New Social Media — Their Uses and Abuses. An explanatory introduction (for troglodytes) will be presented by Murray Edelman, followed by commentary and analysis by individuals TBA.

July 29

Art and Politics. An illustrated presentation by Three Arrows neighbor John Cohen, a noted artist, musician, and photographer, about his experience in the artistic ferment of the 1970's.

August 5

Membership Meeting

August 12

Obama and the Middle East. David Bromwich, distinguished Yale Professor of Literature and Huffington Post blogger, will critique the Obama presidency, with emphasis on the administration's Middle East policy.

August 19

Three Arrows Forests: Managing and Preserving This Precious Resource. Presented by the Tree Committee.

August 26

The Prospects for American Labor in the Present Economy and Political Climate. William Serrin, past labor and workplace commentator for the New York Times.

September 2

Poetry Slam. Featuring works from the Three Arrows Writers Workshop.